

Youth's Department.

Conducted by Lottie Helmsinger.

Nobility.

True worth is in being, not seeming;
In doing each day that goes by
Some little good thing—not in dreaming
Of great things to do by and by.
For whatever men say in their blindness,
And spite of the fancies of youth,
There's nothing so kindly as kindness,
And nothing so royal as truth.

We get back our me as we measure—
We cannot do wrong and feel right,
Nor can we give pain and feel pleasure,
For justice avenges each slight.
The air for the wing of the sparrow,
The bush for the robin or wren,
But always the path that is narrow
And straight for the children of men.

Our Scripture Lesson For Aug. 24th.

Read 2nd. Sam. 24: 15-25.

After the death of Absalom there followed a season of peace and prosperity. And with peace and plenty around these people, they grew proud and haughty, forgetting their duty to and dependence upon God. In this way we often reap the opposite of our desires; when everything is pleasant around us we are apt to be led astray by our good feelings and we neglect our duty towards God, until we, like the Israelites, must be reminded of our dependence by sorrowful chastisement. For this, Israel received the pestilence that followed their vain glorifying of which we read in this lesson.

There was no harm in taking a census; but there is against sin in any act, no matter what the result. It we are prompted by evil motives, our act is condemned in the sight of the Lord, even if much good would be the result.

The pestilence was some great plague, more disastrous than the dreaded cholera of our day, as at one stroke of the scourge seventy thousand men lost their lives. The pestilence that is visited upon us now is punishment for neglect of God's sanitary laws.

The staying of the plague by the devoted act of David and his people shows to us how willing God is to forgive mistakes, and it should urge us to hasten to him when we have erred, knowing that punishment will come as a just reward unless we repent and win pardon for our offense. The punishment was more particularly meant for David for injudicious ruling, and when people suffer for the sins of another, it is not suffering of them, but a natural consequence. We are so closely connected that when one suffers it is felt by all, like when one of our family is suffering from some disease, we suffer with them, if in no other way, in sympathy; or, like the human body, if one member is afflicted it is felt throughout the whole system. When we teach special care should be taken, lest we by some oversight neglect some principal truth and be compelled to mourn as David did. We should not only do well for ourselves, but as we value the happiness of those who are near and dear to us we should do good for them as we learn in our lesson that our acts will affect the happiness of our friends.

Why did the Lord send a pestilence on Israel?
How was the pestilence stayed?
How can we help our friends to be happy?

Our report for the week is certainly very encouraging. Do not despair, my dear children, nor be satisfied with first and only offerings. Let us abound in good works.

Letters from the Children.

Dear Lottie:

I will tell about our school picnic we had. On the 26th of July the girls and boys of Unionville school met at the school house, where we all put our dinners together and set two large tables filled with all kinds of eatables. After dinner about half-past two o'clock, lemonade and cake were served. The largest girls waited on the tables. Mr. Deck our teacher was also present; he furnished the lemonade. The scholars played games. We all had a splendid time. I am very anxious for school to begin again.

I am glad the Dewdrop club is succeeding. Enclosed you will find 50 cents from sister Lutie, Reba and myself for the Dewdrop club. I hope the little friends will not stop writing.

BERTIE SNADER,

Uvilla, Va.

Glad to hear from you again, Bertie. Your letters are always welcome. I am delighted to see all so much interested in liberal-ity. No nobler work was ever begun by young people. May God bless and prosper you, dear children.

Dear Editor:

This makes my third attempt to write to the EVANGELIST, and the next time I will try and send something for the Dew Drop club. Enclosed you will find a piece of paper which shows what prayer will do. I cut it out of the Chicago Times. I saw an advertisement in the EVANGELIST which tells about "The Books of Prayer," which I will try and get sometime. I have four brothers, and one adopted sister from the Cincinnati Orphans' Home. My papa and mamma both belong to the Brethren church. I will close by asking a question:

Where is the city of Dor mentioned in the Old Testament and where is it found?

HARVEY MIKESILL.

Troy, O.

We give you fair credit for your promise, Harvey. That is commendable, when anything of particular interest is brought to your notice, tell us about it. I have read the book advertised, and think it a true account, though certainly not very wonderful, for I believe what Wallace says, Prayer moves the Hand which moves the world, And as Tennyson says,
"More things are wrought by prayer,
Than this world dreams of."

Dear Lottie:

I will write again to the EVANGELIST. I didn't mean to let so much time pass without writing, but I have been away part of the time, at Roanoke (my old home). I had a pleasant time visiting friends and relatives. My two sisters, Lulu and Minnie, are going to start to Ashland to-day to school. I do not like to see them go away. I will send one dollar for the Dewdrop club. I hope all the boys and girls of the children's corner will send something.

MAMIE FRANTZ.

We are pleased to hear from you, Mamie. Your two sisters safely arrived, and seem well pleased with Ashland College. It must be unpleasant for you to be without your two sisters, but we will try to be good to them, and with the self-improvement they will gain, we hope their present absence from home will be for the best to all. Your donation proves you to be an earnest little worker. You have done well. May God's blessing be upon you.

Dear Lottie:

This is the first time I ever wrote to the EVANGELIST, I live in Dakota and like it very well. There are very nice flowers on the prairie, and I like to go and gather them. There is a good Sunday school here, I go nearly every Sunday. There are not many little girls to go, I saw a letter in the paper from Ollie Worst, I thought I would try to write, too. I will soon send some money for the work and do not get to go many places. I am willing to stay a few days from school to help them. A few weeks ago this neighborhood got up a party and went up to Lake Chippewa, and had a kind of a picnic there. After we had our dinner we all took a ride around the lake on the steamer. All enjoyed our trip very much and would like to go again. But I am afraid this is taking all the room from the interesting letters of the other little folks.

LALIE YEATER.

I well remember you, Lalie, and with others will be glad to hear from you when you write. Brother Perry's Sunday school class is still as interesting as ever though of course he greatly misses his little ones who have gone so far away. I am glad you have an opportunity of attending Sabbath School hope you will make good use of it.

Dear Aunt Lottie:

This is my first attempt to write to the EVANGELIST, and I don't know that I can write any thing of much interest. I like to read the letters in the Youth's department. I attend Sunday school at Lawrenceville. My teacher's name is Mrs. H. Penny-packer. I like her very much. She has been my teacher for the past six years. There are five girls, including myself, in the class, and have been for the same time. Our ages are nearly the same, about twelve years. Our parents are members of the Brethren church, also our teacher, and one of us. The oldest was baptized last winter. She is a young sister in the church. Our superintendent is Rev. I. U. Brower, and has been for several years. Dear Lottie; your name is familiar to me from reading the answers you give to the children's letters. My mamma's name is Lottie. Our harvests are nearly all gathered in for another year, and we are thankful for the bountiful harvest. Our harvest meeting was on the 9th of August. I will ask a question for my little friends to answer: Give a description and the number of arks found in the Bible.

ELLA S. EISENBERG,

East Coventry, Pa.
You certainly have an interesting class and I feel much respect for the kind lady who is so successful with her class. I hope, before long, I may hear that all the members of her class have recognized God as their captain.

The name is not a very common one. Lottie is only a home name. My name, properly, is Charlotte.

We owe much gratitude to our Father for the bountiful harvests we have had this year, and unlike the Israelites we should be charitable and help his cause, rather than be avaricious and proud.

Dear Friend Lottie: As you want little folks to write for the paper I will write because I am a little girl, and I will send you 10 cents to help the dew drop club along. Brother Roy and Mark will send a little too. We earned it ourselves so we can do with it just what we like. We expect to start to school tomorrow. Aunt Ella will be our teacher, it will not be far from our house. This is a beautiful country. I would like to see Ella Arnold and Jennie and Maud Myers. Are all my school-mates there? I am only eight years old.

RETTA YEATER.

I am very glad Rettie, to learn that you are well pleased with your home. I would like very well to be with you in your beautiful country, but it would not be wise for us all to leave Ashland. May God bless the kind hearts and willing hands that have sent the liberal gifts. We will always be glad to hear from our old friends.

Dear Lottie:

I am glad I have the privilege of writing a few short lines to your good and interesting corner. Instead of letting it decrease we should try and make it as interesting as possible. This we can do if all of us get our pen and bring in the letters so fast that Lottie will not know what to do with them all. I hope the Dew-drop fund may prosper, but I will have to wait till I can earn some more money, before I can give it any help. Our school commenced two weeks ago. I am going as regular as I can. I do as much as I can evenings, mornings and Saturdays, but as my two oldest brothers have to do most of the work and do not get to go many places, I am willing to stay a few days from school to help them. A few weeks ago this neighborhood got up a party and went up to Lake Chippewa, and had a kind of a picnic there. After we had our dinner we all took a ride around the lake on the steamer. All enjoyed our trip very much and would like to go again. But I am afraid this is taking all the room from the interesting letters of the other little folks.

CHARLIE YODER.

Nobly spoken, Charlie; we should not neglect a good work, but with our shoulders to the front give it such starts as to make it spin to the next one who is friendly, and thus make our work a busy one.

I will devise some way for disposal of the many letters that I will receive through Charlie's method. The Dewdrops can wait until you earn something, and it will be the more appreciated coming through your own hands.

"Kind hearts are more than coronets" and they always win a just reward. Right again, Charlie; be kind to your brothers. One never regrets having done a kind act.

PERUNA

Is a new remedy, originally compounded and introduced to the medical profession, and then to the public at large, by S. B. Hartman, M. D. He has prescribed it to over 40,000 patients, with the most gratifying results.

Its effect upon the system is entirely unlike that of any other remedy, and it is the only medicine needed in almost every disease to which flesh is heir. In all cases it has no equal.

PERUNA is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, each one a curing medical authority, a great remedy in itself. Dr. Hartman has succeeded in extracting and combining the active principles of these ingredients into one simple compound, which perfectly cures with the Via Medietrix Nature in every disease, and a cure necessarily follows. There is not an organ it will not reach, nor a disease it will not cure.

Ask your druggist for Dr. Hartman's pamphlet on the "Fills of Life," Dr. S. B. Hartman & Co., Columbus, Ohio, U. S. A.
